Cento Domeniche \(A Hundred Sundays\) - Comedy

The story of Antonio Riva, a shipyard worker leading a mostly quiet life. He spends his leisure time playing bocce with friends, takes care of his elderly mother, and deeply loves his daughter Emilia, born from his previous marriage with whom he maintains an excellent relationship. One day, Emilia informs her father of her intention to get married, making Antonio truly happy as it allows him to fulfill one of his dreams: to provide his daughter with the wedding reception she has always wanted, thanks to the savings he has set aside over the years. Antonio's dream of financing Emilia's wedding will prove to be a challenging task, and he will learn the hard way that those who guard our treasures may not necessarily safeguard our dreams.

Sunday Sept 21st at 12 noon

Grazie Ragazzi \(Thank you Guys\) - Comedy/Drama

In the absence of job offers, Antonio, a passionate but often unemployed actor, accepts the job offered to him by an old friend and colleague, much smarter than him, as a teacher in a theater workshop at a penitentiary institute. Hesitant at first, he discovers talent in the unlikely company of inmates and this rekindles his passion and desire to do theater, to the point of convincing the stern prison director to cross the prison walls and stage the famous comedy by Samuel Beckett Waiting for Godot on a real theater stage.
